

$10,000 Partner Recognition

The Institute Partner Program provides valuable relationship opportunities to increase a company’s name recognition and promote goodwill in the local government community through association with quality information resources to local officials. Institute partners at the $10,000 and above level have the opportunity to be publicly thanked for their support in the Institute’s publications and work product.

Recognizing support in a key Institute work product is one way we publically thank our Partners and let city and county officials know of the Partners’ support. In addition to being recognized in Institute publications, Institute partners receive full recognition at the commensurate level through the League of California Cities Partnership Program.
