and proof of participation certificates for attendees (sign-ins required)

For every person over 100, a charge of $45 dollars will be added to the cost of the training.

We encourage you to make any extra space available at these sessions to officials from other local agencies. If you like, we would be happy to list these sessions on our website (www.ca-ilg.org/ab1234compliance) with registration materials (or links) to let local officials know how to sign up. You can also charge a fee to defray your expenses.

Proceeds of all activities support the Institute's work in public service ethics.
The Institute is a 501(c)(3) organization.
