The second webinar in this series on the Institute's sustainability recognition program, the Beacon Award, will describe opportunities to make the most of program participation and demonstrate progress toward achieving an award level.

The webinar will explain how Beacon Award participants can:

- report on program criteria including sustainability activities, reductions in greenhouse gas emissions and energy use;
- spotlight interim accomplishments; and
- achieve a silver, gold or platinum Beacon Award.

The Beacon Award is sponsored by the Institute for Local Government and the Statewide Energy Efficiency Collaborative, an alliance to help cities and counties reduce greenhouse gas emissions and save energy. It is a collaboration between three statewide non-profit organizations, including the Institute for Local Government, and California's four Investor Owned Utilities. The Beacon Award program is funded by California utility ratepayers and administered by Southern California Gas Company, San Diego Gas & Electric Company, Pacific Gas and Electric Company and Southern California Edison, under the auspices of the California Public Utilities Commission.

About the Learning Network
