

Public Engagement E-Monthly

Monthly public engagement news, resources and events for local elected officials and staff in California from the Institute for Local Government.

Wrapping Up the Year in Public Engagement

During this holiday season, we wanted to pause from our work to send you greetings and our sincere wishes of health and happiness in the coming year. Your support of our work here at ILG is very much appreciated. We have much to be thankful for, including the full recovery and return to work of Terry Amsler after his accident in London earlier this year. Terry has been kind enough to share his thoughts as he reflects on 2013 and looks forward to the year ahead.
