

Public Engagement E-Monthly

This monthly Enews highlights new and relevant public engagement resources and events for local elected officials and staff.

Engaging the Public in Planning for Housing Resource

This resource helps inform local officials about the importance of engaging the public in planning for housing and outlines steps that they can take to ensure that their community is part of the process.

SB 375 Resource Center

Is your community engaging in planning for SB 375? ILG has created a resource center to help local leaders and staff understand the requirements of the law and the opportunities to engage their communities in the process. The resource center includes: resources and definitions, information about California's Metropolitan Planning Organizations and three guides to understanding the basics of SB 375 (public participation requirements, opportunities to engage the public in regional planning and regional planning for transportation, housing and the environment).

Public Engagement Signposts – August 2014

This regular feature of ILG's Public Engagement E-News offers useful information and resources about public engagement practices, innovations and ideas from sources in California and elsewhere.
