

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE ON DIALOGUE AND DELIBERATION

Making Tough Decisions ... Together

Imagine the Possibilities!

Join elected officials, local government managers & staff, community leaders, students and public engagement practitioners in this one-day, hands-on workshop to explore practical and innovative strategies for working together with the public to make today's tough choices.

- Collaborate with peers on local, real-world challenges to discover best practices, unexpected solutions, and lessons learned the hard way
- Learn about local resources and begin an action plan for improving public engagement in your community
- Increase your knowledge of the principles, strategies, tools, and techniques that foster community problem solving

from crisis—to collaborative solutions

DISCOVER:

SUCCESSFUL STRATEGIES: new ways to work with the public to make tough decisions

EFFECTIVE PARTICIPATION: what does it take to make it work?

ONLINE TOOLS: how do they support effective engagement?

COLLABORATIONS THAT WORK: building relationships that enhance community problem solving

Sponsors include:

AmericaSpeaks, Antioch University Midwest, California Forward, Community at Work, Common Knowledge, Citizens in Charge Foundation, Davenport Institute for Public Engagement & Civic Leadership, National Conference of State Legislatures, Neighborhood Empowerment Network, Public Conversations Project and the SEEDS Community Resolution Center

More information at: <http://ncdd.org/events/sanfrancisco.php>
Register at <http://ncddsanfrancisco.eventbrite.com/>
Email: ncdd@thataway.org

Friday, October 29, 2010
9 a.m. - 5 p.m.
DeAnza Community College
Cupertino, CA 95014
$85 (includes lunch)