Introduction to “The Quick List”

The earliest version of “The Quick List” appeared nearly 25 years ago when the Senate Local Government Committee’s staff started jotting down statutory citations to answer questions from other staffers, lobbyists, and constituents.

“Where do I look in state law to find the Brown Act?” was a common question. Or, “What’s the cite for the redevelopment law?” And the never-ending string of questions about LAFCOs. The Committee’s staff quickly tired of looking up the same answers, so they wrote them down. And “The Quick List” was born.

Over the years, “The Quick List” has improved because of the hard work by a succession of wonderful Senate Fellows, including Candace Carpenter (2000-01) and Christina Wong (2005-06).

Helen Ho is the Committee’s 2008-09 Senate Fellow. Working from the 2006 version, Helen checked every citation, corrected past mistakes, and added valuable new items. Every time you use the Second Edition of “The Quick List,” be sure to thank Helen for her excellent work.

Zoning

Government Code §65800, et seq.

County and city zoning ordinances set land use standards and restrict land uses.
Retrieving Official Documents

California Statutes

1. Go to the home page for the Legislative Counsel: www.leginfo.ca.gov

2. Click on the button labelled “CALIFORNIA LAW.”

3. In the next screen, find the Code that you want to search. For example, if you want to read Government Code §65302 (the contents of general plans), check the box for “Government Code” then click on the “Search” button near the bottom of the page.

4. In the next screen, you’ll see section numbers highlighted in blue. Scroll down and click on “65300-65303.4.”

5. In the next screen, you’ll see a series of code sections. Scroll down to “65302.”

Attorney General’s Legal Opinions

1. Go to the home page for the California Attorney General: http://caag.state.ca.us

2. On the left side of the page, scroll down to “LEGAL OPINIONS” and click on “Opinions of the Attorney General.”

3. In the next screen, scroll down and click on “Opinions Search.”

4. In the next screen, fill in the field. For example, if you want to see the AG’s opinions since 1986 that contain the word “LAFCO,” type “LAFCO” and click on the button “Search.”

5. In the next screen, following this example, you have 20 citations to choose from. Click on the opinion you want to read.

Administrative Regulations

2. If you know the title and Code section numbers of the regulation you want to read, click on “Search for a Specific Regulatory Section,” otherwise, proceed to step 3.

3. If you don’t know the title and/or Code section numbers, click on “List of CCR Titles.”

4. In the next screen, click on the Title that contains the topic you want to read. For example, for the CEQA Regulations, click on “TITLE 14. NATURAL RESOURCES.”
5. In the next screen, continue clicking on the “+” icons to expand the divisions, chapters, and articles until you find the Code section you want to read. Following our CEQA Regulations example, expand “DIVISION 6. RESOURCES AGENCY” and “CHAPTER 3. GUIDELINES FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE CALIFORNIA ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY ACT.” This will bring you to the articles related to CEQA regulations.

California Court Decisions

1. Go to the home page for the California court system: www.courtinfo.ca.gov

2. In the upper left-hand corner of the screen, click on “opinions.”

3. In the next screen, near the upper left-hand corner, click on the box that says “Searchable Opinions 1850 – Present.”

4. In the next screen, near the bottom of the page, click on the button “Continue.”

5. In the next screen (now you’re at a LEXIS NEXIS screen), scroll down to the bottom of the page and check the box that says “I have read and agree to these Terms and Conditions.”

6. Then, on the same screen, click “VIEW OPINIONS ➔.”

7. In the next screen, there are 2 ways to search for cases. Use the lower method called “Get Opinion by Cite” and enter the citation for the decision you want to retrieve. For example, if you want to read Beach-Courchesne v. City of Diamond Bar (2000) 80 Cal.App.4th 388, then fill out the three fields:
   - In the first box called “Enter Volume” insert “80”
   - In the pull down menu called “Select Reporter” click on “Cal.App.4th”
   - In the third box called “Enter Page #” insert “388”

8. When the Beach-Courchesne decision comes up, you can either read it online or you can print the case. Because that decision is 11 pages long, it might be easier to print the opinion.
